AWFUL TRAGEDY AT WEST CARLISLE

Mrs. James Hughs' Head Was Blown Entirely Off

WHILE IN HER BURNING HOME

She Was Attempting to Save Her Husband's Shotgun When It Was Discharged Killing Her Instantly.

Monday afternoon the little village of West Carlisle was discussing the awful death of Mrs. Hess at Bladensburg only eight miles away when it was called upon to think of a tragedy much nearer home. Two miles west of the village lay the body of Mrs. James Hughs, the entire upper part of her head blown away by the discharge of a shotgun she was endeavoring to save from her burning home. Grouped about her were sorrowing neighbors while her four motherless children, shocked and almost unable to understand what had happened, sobbed for the dear one they would know no more.

James Hughs is a farmer and lived with his wife and children two miles west of West Carlisle. He worked hard, and by the help of his wife got along very well although he was a poor man. The children, the oldest being eight and the baby only two, occupied much of the mother's time, but she worked faithfully to help her husband make his way in the world. To increase his income he has been working for George Magruder some distance from home.

Hughs had come home for dinner Monday and spent the hour talking to his wife and the babies. He returned to work little thinking that he would never again see his wife alive.

It was about two o'clock when Mrs. Hughs discovered the house was on fire. She made an effort to extinguish the flames but finding the fire was already beyond control she saved the children. Thinking then of what few things in the house were of value Mrs. Hughs ran back into the burning building.

Probably the first thing to attract her attention was her husband's shotgun. It hung on pegs over the door between the sitting room and kitchen. Reaching up she removed the gun and was taking it away when it was discharged. The barrels were toward her and the heavy charge apparently entered her mouth. The top of head was blown entirely away, and the bleeding body dropped down in the flames of the humble home where all her hopes and aims were centered.

To this time the neighbors had not been attracted to the scene, but Rill Wilson who lives not far away chanced to see the flames. He ran as fast as possible, and reached the house soon after the death of Mrs. Hughs. Rushing into the house he found her body on the floor of the sitting room and carried it into the open air. The scene that followed was heartrending. Gathered about the mangled, unrecognizable form of their mother were the children, the oldest crying because of the loss they had sustained and the others unable to comprehend the awful nature of the tragedy. Other neighbors hurried to the spot and some of the effects were saved, but the greater part were consumed.

Mrs. Hughs was taken from the place and the body prepared for burial. She was the daughter of Ezra Wilson and was well known in the vicinity where she resided. The remains will be interred in the cemetery at West Carlisle Wednesday.

News of the terrible happening quickly spread, and many persons went to the spot where Mrs. Hughs met her death, but they saw little. Only the dying embers of what had once been a happy place of abode, even though the house was not pretentious and wealth and luxury were a part of the poor woman's daily life. It was a scene of sadness, a place of desolation and those who went did not long remain.

HE HAS THE SMALLPOX

Doctor Kitzmiller, of Avondale, is Not a Very Sick Man.

HAS BEEN ILL FOR A WEEK

Coshocton Physicians Were Called This Morning and Diagnosed the Case.

The startling intelligence reached the city at noon that Dr. Kitzmiller, the well known Avondale physician, has the smallpox.

Recently Dr. Kitzmiller was called upon to look after a family that suffered from what he had every reason to believe was chickenpox. The disease was in light form and they soon recovered. One week ago the doctor became ill but he was not alarmed until today when he called Dr. Marshall and Doctor McClain from this city. They examined him carefully and concluded the condition is smallpox. The family were quarantined, and precautions taken to keep the disease from spreading. The physicians found the disease well developed, but they do not regard the doctor's condition as serious.

It has been two years since this section was alarmed by the presence of smallpox. Coshocton was at that time the victim.

HARRISON IS WORSE.

His Physicians Fear That He Cannot Recover.

[Special Telegram to The Age] INDIANAPOLIS, March 12—General Harrison's condition has changed for the worse and during the entire morning he grew weaker.

Although no official announcement has yet been made by his physicians it is feared he cannot survive many hours.

"I had a running sore on my leg for seven years," writes Mrs. Jas. Forest of Chilpeva Falls, Wis. "and spent hundreds of dollars in trying to get it healed. Two boxes of Bannan Balm entirely cured it." No other salve so healing. C. B. Anderson.

THE LIMIT IS FIXED

Railroad Agents Will Not Have Freight About Them

MORE THAN FORTY-EIGHT HOURS

After That Time it Will Be Stored and Charged to the Owner at His Risk.

The railroad agents of the city have taken action which will interest all persons in the city and surrounding country who have freight shipped to Coshocton. In the future 48 hours is the limit placed upon the keeping of freight. After that time it must be moved.

Notices have been posted at the freight depots announcing that if freight is not removed from cars and sheds within 48 hours after its arrival it will be taken and stored at the owner's risk and expense.

The agents explain that so much freight comes to Coshocton as to make it absolutely necessary that it be moved at the earliest possible moment after its arrival. The railroad companies cannot take care of it for an indefinite period, and it has been deemed best to place a time limit. It is believed that persons receiving freight will act promptly when they know their property will be stored at their expense and risk if they delay.

Mrs. Pharion was given custody of the two minor children. The household goods were given as alimony. The parties have been married nearly 25 years and have resided in this city for some time.

SAMUEL PARKS DEAD.

The Traveling Auditor of the Wheeling Carried Away by Pneumonia.

Word reached the city this morning that Samuel Park, traveling auditor of the Wheeling & Lake Erie railway, had died at one o'clock in Cleveland. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

Mr. Park was a brilliant railroad man, having been promoted steadily from the time he entered the service of the old Connotton Valley company. His boyhood home was in Avondale, and many relatives reside there. He was married to Miss Mary Lear, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lear, and they have resided in Cleveland for some time. Mr. Park was ambitious and thoroughly qualified for the high position he would certainly have reached had not death cut short his career. Mrs. Park's many friends in this city extend to her their deepest sympathy.

DOGS FOLLOWED TRAIL

Until it Led to the House Next to Where Mrs. Hess

WAS BEATEN TO DEATH SUNDAY

Sheriff Lynde, of Mt. Vernon, Acting on This and Other Evidence Arrested the Occupant.

Because bloodhounds followed a trail to his house and tracks about the humble home of the dead woman are almost identical with his own, George Houck has been arrested for murdering Mrs. Sarah J. Hess at Bladensburg Sunday night.

Sheriff Lynde, of Mt. Vernon, went to Bladensburg as soon as he learned of the murder, and after looking over the house and its surroundings sent for bloodhounds in the hope of finding the murderer. There was no clue and it was impossible to gain information from the people. No one seemed to know anything about the murder beyond what everybody knew.

The bloodhounds arrived about 11 o'clock, and were at once taken to the house. They followed their usual tactics, and in a short time started through the village. They followed the trail for a quarter of a mile, and leaving the road crossed into a field. There they circled until it was clear the individual they were following had returned to the town. Excitement was at fever heat as the dogs entered the village and it seemed as though they were about to enter the house from which they had started. But without swerving from the track they went straight to the next house, occupied by George Houck, a farmer.

The dogs were put on three trails before this last was found but they lost each one and there was some doubt as to the result of the effort, but Sheriff Lynde decided to look further into the matter. He had other evidence, and although the dogs had finished their work at 2:30 o'clock, Houck was not placed under arrest until 7:15 this morning. He was taken to Mt. Vernon.

The other evidence against Houck is that footprints around the Hess house are identical with those found in the soft earth at his house and these last have been identified as made by Houck. If there is other evidence the sheriff said nothing about it.

The arrest of Houck caused almost as much excitement as the murder. He has always borne a good reputation, and was looked upon as a good man. He has a wife and four children and worked hard to maintain them.

Houck protested his innocence, and declared he could prove he was not guilty. His house was searched, but nothing was found to show that he had committed the crime.

SUIT FOR INSURANCE.

It Has Been Heard in Two Courts and is Now Before the Supreme Court.

Judge T. C. Roche went to Columbus this evening and will try a case in the supreme court Wednesday morning.

The case is that of Joseph Sarlin, Jr., against The Ohio Farmers Insurance company and has been pending in the courts since 1894. It was first tried in common pleas court in 1894 and the plaintiff got the decision. It was carried to the circuit court where it was reversed. It was then tried in common pleas court with the decision for plaintiff and the circuit court sustained the decision. The company has taken it to the supreme court.

Sarlin lived in Franklin township and his house burned. It was insured in The Ohio Farmers and he claims he could not collect.

Come to Armory hall next Thursday evening and get your supper and thereby assist the W. R. C. in their benevolent work.

Sharon, Pa., March 12.—The Shenango valley is being swept by a raging flood, the worst in eight years, and thousands of dollars worth of property has been destroyed between Greenville and Newcastle. The heavy rains and melting snow during the past two days have put the river on the rampage. An immense ice gorge has formed at the Bessemer railroad bridge, backing the water up for miles and inundating part of Greenville. The Sharon steel works and Sharon steel hoop plant are under water.

When men go fishing they use bait and hook—the fish get caught! SOME BUSINESS HOUSES USE BAITS, (and hooks too.) What are they doing? Simply fishing. Test Your Kidneys

Use a Test Which Costs You Nothing—Find Out for Yourself if You Have Symptoms of Kidney Disease—Find Out Before It Is Too Late—Do Not Wait Until You Break Down.

CURE YOURSELF NOW

If there is the slightest evidence of kidney or bladder trouble, or if any of your family have ever had it, you will be doing only your duty to remove the disease at once. If taken early it can easily be cured, but if allowed to go unchecked, there is danger ahead for you.

Prove yourself by this test:
Does your urine stain linen? See if there is a sediment or a milky, cloudy appearance in your urine by letting the urine stand twenty-four hours in a glass tumbler. Do you have a frequent desire to urinate, especially at night? Does the urine give a scalding sensation in passing? Do you have pains in the small of the back?
If you have any of these symptoms, take action without delay. Some of the most fatal forms of kidney disease are painless—the disease grows and spreads without giving special warning. Disturbances like a "back ache," or "a little more frequent desire to urinate," which may be thought trivial, are warnings which should not be neglected. Do not wait for a sick bed. Rid yourself of the disease while you have strength.
If you find any trace of kidney disease, get a bottle of

THE COD

IN A CORDIAL

There are just two things about cod liver oil—goodness and grease. It used to be thought that you couldn't get the goodness without the grease. That's wrong. The goodness isn't the grease. It is no more necessary to swallow the nauseous grease of cod liver oil to get the valuable active principles, than it is to eat the shell of an egg to get the meat.

Right there you have the whole secret of the incalculable value of

HAGEE'S Cordial

of Cod Liver Oil

In separating the grease from the valuable properties, nothing is lost in the process. You get all the good, without the grease. You get all that cod liver oil is famed for, joined with the hypophosphites of lime and soda in a pleasant cordial, without a trace of the dreaded taste.

Hagee's Cordial is the best flesh builder and blood purifier now known in medical science.

Don't mistake this for an irresponsible claim. It's too important. And its importance is vital to thousands and thousands of people who are going about their daily business and cannot be called sick, and who will be ill some day unless they fortify their systems with the medical properties that Hagee's Cordial of cod liver oil alone can give.

There is much more to be said about Hagee's Cordial than can be told here. Ask your doctor about it. Better still, get out bottles and test it. Judge of the merits by results. Sold every where in $1.00 bottles. Made by

REPORTS AN IMPORTANT SURRENDER

Believes It Indicates an Early Collapse of the Insurrection.
A former French Consul Who, It Is Charged, Assisted the Insurgents—Two Vessels Seized.

Manila, March 12.—The coasting steamer Carmen, 268 tons, the property of Galliano Urrietta, and the schooner Orient, 97 tons, the property of Jose Yanez, were seized on the recommendation of the commander of the United States gunboat Petrel, on the charge of illicit transportation of cargo between Sopsere and Bulian, in the province of Albay. Contraband of war was found on board the vessels, both of which will be held pending investigation.

In the case against Fernando Rustan, charged with having aided the insurgents, papers have been discovered which place him in an unfavorable light. M. De Bernard, former French consul in Manila, who has returned to Europe. A detachment of the Forty-eighth volunteer infantry has defeated a body of insurgents near Santa Cruz, province of Laguna. A Bloodless Face Indicates Trouble.

Watery Blood a Menace to Health.

WE KNOW HOW PALE PEOPLE CAN GET RICH RED BLOOD.

COME AND LET US TELL YOU ABOUT VINOL.

When blood is watery and thin, or, as doctors would say, lacks red blood corpuscles, it is a sign that much is radically wrong.

We would advise everyone who has such symptoms to start at once to take a proper remedy to overcome this trouble.

That remedy is Vinol, the greatest and most modern tonic and re-builder. Vinol owes its virtue to the fact that it contains in a highly concentrated state the active curative principles extracted from cods' livers, the same elements that have made cod-liver oil famous for wasting diseases.

These medicinal elements are dissolved in a delicious table wine so that Vinol is most palatable.

None of the vile-smelling obnoxious grease that characterizes cod-liver oil and frequently makes it an impossible remedy for those who should take it, is found in Vinol.

We could relate many instances where Vinol has done good and restored the roses of health to the pale cheeks of the sufferer.

The following is a fair sample of the way people write in regard to Vinol: "For several months I suffered lassitude and tired all the time. Also a sinking feeling in my stomach, which nothing would relieve, and I was pale and weak. As an experiment I tried Vinol and if I wrote pages I could not tell all it has done for me."—Mrs. A. K. LA PRUSCH, Amesbury, Mass.

Because we know Vinol so well, and because we know so surely what it will do, and how it will accomplish the good it does in a scientific way, we unreservedly endorse and recommend it, and in every instance guarantee to refund to any one what they pay us for Vinol if they do not find it entirely satisfactory.

FOUR TICKETS THE LIMIT.

Plan by Which All Who Desire to Hear Dr. Lewis Can Secure Seats.

Reserved seats for the "Passion Play," the last number of the lecture course, will be placed on sale at Smith's drug store Wednesday morning at 11:30 o'clock. Each applicant will be allowed to reserve four tickets and no more. That arrangement will give all an opportunity to secure seats and will do away with one person at the head of the line taking all the best seats.

Doctor Lewis, who will tell his story of the great performance at Oeramergerau, knows as much of the subject as any living American. He has studied it for years and is an authority on all the questions connected with it. He is a gentleman of pleasing address and the lecture is always enjoyed while the pictures are a feature worthy the highest admiration.

A HAPPY FAMILY

They Are Japs and Spent the Night in the City.

R. Ashida is the name of a pleasant young man, who with his wife and child spent Monday night at the Empire hotel.

The gentleman is a native of the Flowery Kingdom and ranks high among the jugglers that have made his countrymen famous. For years he was with the Buffalo Bill combination but now he is attached to a company being formed in Canton.

The party attracted much attention at the hotel, the babe crouching and smiling as though it enjoyed being a Jap immensely, while the mother, shy and retiring, attracted universal admiration by her beauty.

RIVER ROSE RAPIDLY.

Tuscarawas Went on a Rampage Last Midnight.

The Tuscarawas began rising at midnight, having been stationary for a time, and until 6 o'clock this morning came up at an alarming rate. The great volume of water seemed to have passed at that hour and although it was rising at noon the danger of a flood is passed.

Water covers the Canal Lewisville road and almost reaches the road to Roscoe. It is not believed it will cut off communication between Coshocton and Roscoe.

Mr. J. W. Patterson, night police at Na shua, Ia., says: "In January I had a very bad cold on my lungs, and used half dozen different cough medicines and prescriptions from two doctors, but grew worse all the time. I finally bought a bottle of Foley's Kidney and Urinary and using two thirds of it, I was cured." C. E. Anderson.
